ISNO Lecture Series HS22
Queerness in the Middle East:
History, Activism & Social Change

Session 1: Queerness and Middle Eastern Studies:
Why Does that Matter?
Serena Tolino, University of Bern
This presentation serves as an introduction to the lecture series. Serena Tolino will reflect on what Queerness means with reference to Middle Eastern Studies, why the topic is relevant, how research in this area changed during the last two decades, and what are the main directions of research.
